FSPCA Preventive Controls for Animal Food Lead Instructor Course
The FSPCA Preventive Controls for Animal Food Lead Instructor Course is not currently scheduled because the curriculum is in the process of being updated. Once the updated curriculum is published, FSPCA will schedule and announce a course date in 2026.

Important Notice: Courses may be cancelled if enrollment is insufficient. For in-person courses, cancellations will be made no later than three weeks before the start date. We recommend waiting until after that time to make travel arrangements. Virtual courses may also be cancelled if enrollment is low, and registered participants will be notified promptly.
